

Crochet Coffee Mug Cozy Pattern

This is a pattern for a coffee mug cozy. It will fit any regular size coffee mug, and stretch to fit bigger sizes. It can be adapted to fit larger or smaller mugs by increasing or decreasing the amount of rows after the 6th row. This pattern uses only single crochet and is worked in the back loops of stitches to form a ribbed effect. However, it can be worked in both loops if you prefer! It employs increasing and decreasing single crochet so make sure you know how to do that first!

Gauge: You can use any size crochet hook, but 4.5mm works best.
